

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is an appalling
abuse of power by a public broadcasting
company.

Please take action
and hold Sinclair
responsible for this
abuse.
Better yet, stop
them from airing
this mud-raking
slander piece
before the election.

Isn't there a law
that says a public
broadcaster can not slander one
political candidate
without equally slandering all the other candidates in the race for the same political office!

You've shown us that you'll force huge
fines on broadcasters if they
let a DJ like Howard Stern use
inappropriate
language or content
on the air. Now
show us that you
have the guts to stand up to Sinclair
for airing this
anti-Kerry
documentary in
attempt to force-feed the public a point of view that Sinclair
thinks is right.

Show us that you are on the side of
un-biased, lawful
and equal program
management on our public air-time and
not on the side of the current Bush administration.

Thank you.
